(for World Conference '88)

Thursday, April 7,
7:30 p.m.
The Shaw Center
Graceland College
Lamoni, Iowa

With the Concert and Chapel Choirs
and The Lamoni Chorale Richard Clothier and
Thomas Hart, Conductors

Charles May, Scott Gunn and Martha Hart, soloists

Shelly Judd, Winston Inslee and Susan Medler, readers

Tonight's performance is dedicated to the memory of Richard K. Porter who passed away on March 15, 1988 in San Luis Obispo, California. Rick came to Graceland in 1979 as an instructor of voice, conducting, and counterpoint. In 1980 he became director of the Graceland Choir and Chamber Singers. During his tenure he conducted the choral concerts and the Homecoming productions of Fiddler on the Roof and Music Man. In May, 1986, the choirs and orchestra performed Mozart's Requeim. This was his last Graceland concert. He moved to California later that month.

Rick was born in Tucson, Arizona in 1951. He attended high school and college in Oshkosh, Wisconsin and graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh in 1973 with a Bachelor of Music Education degree. He completed a Master of Music at the University of Illinois in January, 1979 and came to Graceland that fall.

Colleague Craig Hancock's statement about Rick expresses the feeling of those who knew and worked with him. "Rick's presence on campus was special. He was an incredibly intense and devoted person in all he did. We were sorry to see him leave Graceland, and are greatly saddened at this loss. I'm sure that those of us who knew Rick feel our lives have been enriched by his contact with us."
